

RULES

Gamers wear technicolor suits... all one color, depending on team.
blue and green

Visor/ helmets let them see the dimensional currents attach blue ring to your green opponent, send him back to base – captured

transport yourself to next world with multi-task rin

Gamers in disguise until in position for a fight, then flick on their suit – ch-ching – lights up out of invisibility

Welder-like weapons, short arc/blade (red) attached to arm

Viewers monitor the currents for gamer activity, like news photographers with police scanners. Grab cameras/transmitters, show up on the scene to capture action for broadcast.

some evil genius from another world – trying to alter the currents, tear holes in dimensions

take over the lanes for ransom?

have nazi army rule the universe?

masquerades as gamer, kills combatants

WTC style bombing of current nexus, takes out main guy's best friend higgs field. goggles let you see it? Or cassini or zero point.

SCIENCE

our universe, pre-higgs/boson discovery gravity, electro magnetic, weak, strong gravitons, electrons, ..., ...

pocket universes - part of multiverse - bubble wrap some fields aren't calibrated, incapable of supporting life bad guy wants to become god destroying base universe - fields shifting - will be deadly soon supplant multiverse with one of his own design how do you know it hasn't been done before?
